DR. W. H. FRAZER
President

MISS SALLIE McLEAN
Dean

Greetings:

To all students coming to Queens-Chicora College for the first time, I wish to extend most cordial greetings. May your stay with us be one of pleasure and of profit.

If there is anything that we can do in this office to assist you in making the very best of your time while here, please command us. We know something of your problems and our hearts are in thorough sympathy with your purposes.

You will find in your fellow students who have been here before, a great source of help and of guidance while you are trying to adjust yourselves to a new situation.

Queens-Chicora is in existence to help you toward your laudable ambition of making of yourselves the very finest Christian women that it is possible for you to become. Use her every resource unsparingly toward the attainment of this end.

Cordially yours,

W. H. FRAZER,
President.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Dear New Girls:

On behalf of the Student Government of Queens-Chicora, I wish to extend a hearty welcome to all the day students and boarders who are joining us for the first time. We are looking forward to meeting you and associating with you in your work and play. We hope that you will co-operate with us and help us to get the greatest possible good out of our student government. I know that if you come here with a spirit of loyalty and co-operation, you will soon become a part of us and will learn to love Queens-Chicora and all it stands for.

MARY CHINA STEPHENSON,
President of Student Body.

Pledge Card

In order to uphold the standards of the Student Government Association, of which I am a member, I promise to obey all of its rules and regulations. As an individual, I am responsible for the carrying out of these rules, and if I break them or see another do so, I will immediately report to a member of the Student Council (preferably the president). I also agree to carry the honor system into the class room, where I will neither give nor receive aid; if I violate or see another violate this class room pledge, I will be under obligation to report at once to the President of the Student Government Association. (Twenty-four hours is the time limit for reporting Violations.)

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

We, the students of Queens-Chicora College, in order to promote our well-being as students and fulfill the purpose for which we came to college, do hereby, in agreement with the Faculty, adopt the following Constitution:

Article I

The name of this association shall be the Student Government Association of Queens-Chicora College.

Article II

The purpose of the association shall be the government of the Student Body.

Article III

All persons pursuing studies at Queens-Chicora College hereby adopt the honor system as the basis of its policy. This means in its application to the conduct of its members that each girl is to be trusted to observe all the regulations of Student Government, including those of the college, and to report herself to the Student Council if she violates any of them. This is loyalty to Student Government, and no girl is worthy to continue as a member who is shown to be guilty of disloyalty.

Article IV

(a) There shall be a President of the Student Body elected from the Student Body.

Article V

(a) The duties of the President shall be to preside over all Student Body meetings.

(b) The President of the Athletic Association shall act as secretary of the General Council.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS DURING THE YEAR

1. Budget Fee—$10.00 paid at entrance.
2. Senior class sponsors 1 required pay Entertainment.
3. Junior class sponsors 1 required pay Entertainment.
4. Sophomore class sponsors 1 required pay Entertainment.
5. Freshman class sponsors 1 required pay Entertainment.
6. Dramatic Club sponsors 1 required pay Entertainment.
7. Choral Club sponsors I required pay Entertainment.
8. A charge of $4.00 each semester will be made for those who cook in their rooms.
9. Electric irons may be had in rooms by paying $2.50 per semester to College Treasurer and securing a permit signed by the President. Use of iron is restricted to party registering same, and if others use it there shall be a deposit of $2.50 per semester for each one using it.
10. Electric curlers are subject to same regulations as electric irons.
11. Class dues for each student are set by class at beginning of school year.

IMPORTANT STATEMENTS TO BE REMEMBERED

No student, resident or non-resident, who constantly disregards the regulations of the college, or who is guilty of an outbreaking misdemeanor, will be permitted to be elected to, or to hold, any honor of the college.

No student who has not completed all Freshman work, or who has not earned enough merit hours through the first three years of her chosen course to make her eligible to classification as a regular Senior (that is, having passed 86 semester hours, including at least 24 merit hours), may be elected to any office of Student Government.

A student who is restricted or campused will serve out the appointed restriction or campus without intermission or curtailment.

LIBRARY RULES

I. The Library is a place for research and reading; group conversations are not permitted. Points will be given for any such misconduct.

II. The cards for Reserve books must be signed with the borrower's own name and returned by her personally to the desk.

III. Reserve books registered out for overnight must be returned to the Charging Desk before 8:30 the next morning. A fine of 5c per hour is imposed for failure to return such books to the Library. Week-end books must be returned by 9 a. m. on Monday.

IV. Stacks back of the Librarian's Desk are open only to Juniors and Seniors. The Reserve Section is not open to any student, it is an arrangement for the convenience of the Library Force.

V. Magazines and newspapers are not to be taken from the racks and are not to be clipped. Bound magazines are not to be taken from the Library under any condition.

VI. A student taking a Reserve book to class (at the request of a teacher) must sign her own name to the Reserve card and be responsible for the return of this book to the Desk.

VIII. Library hours: 8-12:20; 1:30 to 5:30; 7-9 daily save Saturday. Saturdays the Library closes at 3 p. m.

BE SURE

1. To join the Queens-Chicora Students Christian Association at your first opportunity after your arrival.

2. To read the College Catalogue, to bring it with you when you come to college and to keep it for reference.

3. To register early.

4. To watch the bulletin board.

5. To decide on your course and make out your schedule of recitations as early as possible.

6. To call on old students for necessary help.

7. To go to all class meetings when they are called.

8. To attend all meetings of the student body.

9. To report promptly to chapel on hearing the bell.

10. To join the Athletic Association.

11. To buy an Annual.

12. To keep the handbook during the year. You will have occasion to refer to it often.

13. To learn the Student Government rules in this handbook. Ignorance of the law is no excuse for its violation.

The Point System

This point system, enforced by the Student Government Association, has been adopted since it guarantees a wide distribution of activities, thus making it democratic. Limitations in the amount of work a student can carry provides for the performance and enrichment of a good program.

Students participating in extra-curricula activities must have a C average with no conditions or failures. The names of all candidates for office must be submitted to the Committee of Student Council on the Point System who will pass on their eligibility both as to points and grades. This system shall apply to all elections held in 1933-1934.

TO THE NEW BOARDING STUDENTS OF QUEENS-CHICORA COLLEGE

The Boarding Student Council extends to you a warm and sincere welcome. We are looking forward to having you with us for we need your co-operation and our hope is that you will support us in developing our organization.

Let us all help each other to realize the high ideals toward which we are striving by living up to the creed of the Queens-Chicora Girl.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

Article I

The name of this organization shall be the Boarding Student Organization of Queens-Chicora College.

Article II

The purpose of this organization shall be the government of the Boarding Students.

Article III

(a) The officers of the association shall be a President elected from the Senior Class, one Vice-President for each building of residence, also from the Senior Class, a Secretary from the Junior Class, a Treasurer from the Sophomore Class.

(b) The above officers with two additional members from the Senior Class, two from the Junior, one from the Sophomore, one from the Freshman.

(c) The senior members of the outgoing Student Council shall nominate candidates for President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer of Boarding Council and shall submit this to the advisory board and then give the names (if approved) to the Student Body to be voted upon. This election shall take place the first week in April and installation of officers will take place the last week in April.

A plurality of vote shall elect all officers for the association.

(d) A Proctor shall be chosen by the students from each floor of the dormitories at the beginning of the Fall term; two names being selected by the Student Council. Their term of office shall be six weeks.

(e) These Proctors shall be subject to removal by Student Council if inefficient in performance of their duties.

Article IV

(a) The duties of the President shall be to call and preside over all meetings of association.

(b) The duties of the Vice-Presidents shall be to preside over and keep order in her hall and to meet with the Student Council.

(c) The duties of the Secretary shall be to keep minutes of the association, a list of its members, post notices of its meetings, and attend to the correspondence of the association.

(d) The duties of the Treasurer shall be to collect all fines, dues of the association, and to expend same in accordance with the will of the association.

(e) The duties of the Student Council shall be to apply the will of the association as expressed in the Constitution, and by enforcing the By-Laws hereinafter stated. No decision of the Student Council can be modified unless it has been disapproved by two-thirds of those present.

(f) Every member of the Boarding Student Body shall act as an indoor and outdoor Proctor. All proceedings of the Council shall be submitted to the Dean for her perusal.

(g) Every member of the Student Body, if she violates the regulation, should report herself to the Student Council; if she fails to do so in 24 hours, after committing the offense, and any member of the Student Body is cognizant of her doing so, it shall be the duty of such member to call her attention to this omission and to notify her that upon a continuance of this attitude of another 24 hours, she herself will be compelled to make the report.

Article V

A meeting of the association should be held regularly once a month, at which Student Government problems shall be discussed; besides these meetings the President may call meetings on her own motion.

Article VI

There should be an Advisory Board composed of a representative of the Faculty and Dean and President.

BY-LAWS

1. The Boarding Student Council sitting as a court is empowered to require testimony from any member of the association and to inflict a penalty for refusal to testify except in cases when for good and sufficient reasons, it shall see fit to excuse the witness.

II. In case of a failure to enforce these rules, the matter automatically reverts to the Executive Council of the Faculty.

III. Offenses are classed as major and minor.

General Rules

Absolute quiet in dormitory from 10:20 p. m. to 6:45 a. m.

From 8:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Closed study hall in rooms from 7:00 to 10:00. The Proctor of hall shall give minor permissions. House President gives all other permissions.

Girls shall make their appearance in dining room fully dressed, hair neatly arranged, etc.

Young ladies will be allowed to receive callers under the following considerations:

Callers will be received on Saturday evenings, with a limit of 12 visitors for each evening. Applications will be received by the Dean, placed on file and taken up in order.

No loitering on campus or in gymnasium after study hall bell rings.

Any disorderly conduct in halls or on campus is under supervision of Student Council.

All dues, fines and pledges must be paid on or within two weeks after pay day, or the girl is subject to restriction. This applies to class dues also.

On nights when receptions are held lights may be kept on 20 minutes later without consulting Proctor.

Ten or fifteen minutes allowed to speak to friends after receptions, except on extraordinary occasions.

Reverence expected in chapel. Attendance compulsory.

Girls may spend Saturday and Sunday nights out of their rooms if they register with House President before Room Bell, provided only three girls are in one room.

Freshmen and Sophomores must be on the campus and sign off by 7:00, otherwise points will be given.

No food taken from the dining room.

One minor will be the penalty assessed for the cutting of a meal.

No playing cards allowed in college.

Students who are visiting in Charlotte or elsewhere for the day, the evening, or the week-end, or who may be representing the College at some convention or gathering, are still under the regulation of the College in matters pertaining to riding with men, traveling on the Sabbath, going to dances, and smoking, and all conduct forbidden by the rules of the Institution. In minor matters, with the consent of the hostess, there may be exercised freedom.

It is not lawful for students to leave the College for a visit or to return to the College from a visit or to drive on the Sabbath Day. The receiving of visitors on the Sabbath Day is not permissible, and all emergency cases can only be allowed by the Dean or the President. The above shall not interfere with students accepting invitations for Sunday dinner and returning by 6 o'clock, nor will it interfere with Seniors accepting such invitations and returning as late as 9 o'clock.

The keeping of sorority houses open during Vesper services or any other service held on the College campus, or during a church service for the College elsewhere, is not lawful.

The keeping of lights on in rooms by underclassmen after 10:30 or Seniors after 11 p. m., is unlawful. And if the practice is persisted in, a fine of 25 cents will be assessed for each occurrence, and if the violation is persisted in the management will turn off all lights at 11 o'clock.

The social gatherings on Sabbath evenings in sorority halls and elsewhere must not exceed 2½ hours, and all visitors should be off the campus by 9 p. m. Young men are not permitted to come to sorority houses, except on occasion of public receptions, and then with the special permission of the Dean for that occasion.

Students are forbidden to loiter on street corners, or to make any sign or indication that they wish to be lifted by passers in autos. There shall be kept a list of approved friends, whose courtesy to give rides may be accepted by students. No other persons have the right or the privilege to give lifts to members of the student body.

It shall be unlawful to receive gentlemen on the campus. All gentlemen callers will be cordially welcomed to the parlors of the Institution, and under no circumstances may they be entertained on the grounds.

Young men who attempt to lure students into violation of the rules, and encourage them to disobey the wishes of the management of the Institution, will be considered persona non grata, and will be asked to absent themselves from the grounds and buildings.

Writing on the walls, or defacing furniture or any part of the property of the College, is forbidden.

All visitors over night, irrespective of whom they may be visiting, must be registered with the Dean, and her approval be given for such visits.

Parents who wish to see their children on the Sabbath Day must make arrangements with the President of the College before Saturday.

1. Students having invitations for Saturday evenings and for Sunday dinner will find their names listed on the outside of the Dean's office door. Those out for week-ends will find their names listed in the Dean's office. Students so listed will report to the office immediately upon their return, giving hour of return. All engagements for Sunday dinner are to be made before 5:00 p. m. on Saturday, or between 8:00 and 10:00 Saturday evening. Those out for dinner on Sunday will return by 6 o'clock. All invitations (seniors excepted) come from the hostess through the Dean.

2. Having accepted an invitation, students are expected to remain in the home from which the invitation came, unless, in leaving that home the hostess herself (the mother, not the daughter) accompanies the guest. And at no time is the guest to attend, even at the invitation of the hostess, any entertainment or function that would not be approved by the President of the college; nor is she to be accompanied by any young man to any place to which her hostess invites her. Riding on Sunday is among the forbidden indulgences.

3. Seniors and Juniors may receive men callers on any evening except Sunday and Monday, using study-hall cuts for their purpose. Sophomores and freshmen may receive men callers on Saturday evenings only. All engagements must be filed in the Dean's office before 5:00 p. m. on the day the caller is expected. Hours from eight to ten p. m. Afternoon calls are limited to one hour in length. No callers to be received after six o'clock except on the appointed evenings for callers and then at the appointed hour.

4. Students who have engagements for Saturday evening have right of way in Burwell Hall at that time. Those who have no engagements will kindly refrain from lingering in the lobby and corridor after 7:45 on those evenings. Students who have no engagements but who talk to the men callers without permission from the chaperon, will be given a major.

5. Students living within several hours run of Charlotte have permission to go to their homes accompanied by young men, provided a statement of the man's name and permission from the parents of the student be sent beforehand to the President or the Dean. On such occasions the young man is to call at the Dean's office for the young lady and they are to leave the college at an hour early enough to place them at their destination before dusk. Students who violate this regulation will be given a major.

6. Students excused from church attendance, yet not ill enough to be in the infirmary will each remain quietly in her own dormitory throughout the morning.

7. Pianos in Burwell Hall are not to be used during school hours. On Sundays only for sacred music. Other musical instruments except the organ, will not be used on Sundays.

8. The Administration is responsible for the care of students who are in need of medical attention. Mrs. Wilson is engaged to have charge of the sick. No student (seniors not excepted) is permitted to call a physician to the college or to go to the office of a physician, with or without previous appointment, until she has consulted Mrs. Wilson and obtained her permission to do so. Any student (seniors not excepted) who violates this regulation will be given a major; and the student or students accompanying her will be given a major.

Outdoor Rules

College students allowed to walk on frequented roads in Myers Park.

Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores may chaperon to Myers Park Store.

Students must not leave the campus after 5:30 p. m.

Under no circumstances will any one be allowed to speak to men or telephone on the occasion of visits to the little store, except Seniors.

No student is allowed to walk, talk, go to movies, drug stores, etc., with young men when in town, except Seniors.

All visitors must be entertained in Burwell Hall, and no calling in cars parked on or off the campus will be allowed. This applies to day students also.

All permissions relating to visiting, receiving, automobiling, ball games, entertainments outside of the college campus, must be given by the Dean.

Students may attend the church of their choice, but must remain for both Sunday school and church.

Students will not ride into town with men unless they are on approved list in college office.

To change churches, permission must be obtained from President of the Student Body. Students who are in their own homes are, while there, under the jurisdiction of their parents, and during that time the College authorities are not responsible for them.

NOTE—The following privileges are not subject to change nor can their number be increased at any time during the year.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES

1. Two Seniors attend picture show, provided their return is not later than 10:00 p. m.

3. Senior day students permitted to visit in the dormitories.
4. Seniors to speak for a minute with out-of-town men whom they may meet on the street.

5. Seniors may be seen in company with young men when spending the week-end in town, provided the hostess accompanies them.

6. Seniors, in groups of two, may walk off the campus after quiet hour on Sunday, provided that not more than 50 per cent of Seniors are off the campus at the same time.

7. Seniors may spend as many week-ends away as desired, provided class work is kept up.

8. Seniors may have guests other than alumnae, provided that in each instance arrangements be made in the office before the arrival of guests.

9. Seniors may chaperon under-classmen, provided the group so chaperoned is limited to five, and the return is on time for dinner.

10. Seniors have their choice in attending church.

11. Seniors are permitted to have men callers twice each week, any night during the week. Any Senior wishing to do so may substitute a dinner invitation, show or play, or go to a drug store, provided they go and return to the College on the street car. The hour of return is to be not later than 10:30 p. m.

12. Seniors permitted to remain off the campus on Sunday until 9:00 p. m., provided that not more than 50 per cent be away at the same time, and that at least one of the three highest officers of Student Government be among those who remain on the campus.

13. Seniors permitted to absent themselves from meals at any time.

14. Seniors are permitted the use of the telephone at any time.

15. Seniors are permitted to keep lights on until 11:00 p. m., but are to be in their rooms after 10:30, and quiet.

SUGGESTIONS

Bring bed linen, towels and necessaries for a day or two in case your trunk does not reach you in time.

Class room supplies and college novelties may be purchased at the College Book Store.

Electric cars run every fifteen minutes between Queens-Chicora and the Southern Railway Station at Charlotte.

Rugs, curtains, pillows and couch covers are not essential, but they will add to the attractive appearance of your room. We advise that you do not purchase your curtain material until after your arrival in Charlotte.

Tell your friends to address your mail in care of Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte, North Carolina, or you may never receive it.

A fountain pen in almost indispensable to college students.

Article VIII

Standing Committees of the Day Student Council

Section 1—The Standing Committees of the Day Student Council shall be as follows: Financial Committee; Program Committee; Social Committee; Athletics Committee; Scholastic Committee; and the Committee of Religious Work.

Section 2—Each committee shall consist of three members, the Chairman to be appointed by the President from the Day Student Council and the remaining two members to be appointed by the President from the Day Student Body at large. These appointments shall be made at the first meeting of the Day Student Council in May, and those appointed shall serve through the school year.

Section 3—The Financial Committee, with the Treasurer as Chairman, shall collect the budget fees from the Day Students, and present to the Day Student Council plans for raising funds necessary in carrying out the work of the Day Student Organization.

Section 4—The Program Committee shall arrange one pay entertainment for each semester, if necessary, and submit plans for the same to the Day Student Council. This committee shall also be responsible for any programs the Day Student Organization may be called upon to present or sponsor. All programs must be submitted to the President of the College for approval.

Section 5—The Social Committee shall strive to promote a feeling of friendship among Day Students and Boarders. This committee shall present to the Day Student Council plans for social gatherings or any other ideas for the promotion of good fellowship and friendliness among the Day Students.

Section 6—The Scholastic Committee shall present to the Day Student Council any suggestions for the purpose of raising the standard of scholarship among Day Students. This committee shall post a Day Student honor roll on the bulletin board at the close of each quarter and shall be responsible for the carrying out of plans for the improvement of scholarship among the Day Students.

Section 7—The Athletics Committee shall present to the Day Student Council any plans for the promotion of athletic activities among Day Students and between Day Students and Boarders. It shall in all cases co-operate with the Athletic Association of the College.

Section 8—The Committee of Religious Work shall present to the Day Student Council any plans for the development of higher spiritual life among Day Students. This committee shall be responsible for any social service, church, or religious work the Day Students might be called upon to do. In all cases, this committee shall co-operate with the Student Christian Association and shall strive through personal work and otherwise, to make Christ part of the life of each Day Student.

Article IX

Meetings

Section 1—The Day Student Council shall meet every two weeks at a time most convenient to the members.

Section 2—The Day Student Organization shall meet the first Saturday of each month.

Section 3—A special meeting of either the Day Student Council or the Day Student Organization may be called by the President if necessary.

Article X

Amendments

Suggestions for amendments to this constitution from the Day Student Body shall be made to the Day Student Council through a Council member. A ¾ vote of the Day Student Council shall be required before the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Day Student Body, and a ¾ vote of the Day Student Organization shall be necessary for passage of the amendment. Any amendment to the Constitution must, however, before being submitted to a Student meeting, receive the approval of the President of the College.

Article XI

Ratification

This Constitution shall become effective immediately upon being approved by the President of the College and adopted by ¾ of the day student body.

BY-LAWS

1. The President of Queens-Chicora College shall have absolute veto power to all action taken by the Day Student Council.
2. All Day Students shall be required to pay Budget Fee.
3. Members of the Day Student Council who are absent from as many as three meetings or two consecutive meetings shall be dropped from the roll unless excused by the President.
4. Expulsion of a member of the Day Student Council shall be by a ¾ vote of the entire Council.
5. The following shall be regarded as sufficient cause of expulsion from membership in the Day Student Council: neglect of duty; continued absence from meetings as specified in By-Law 3; or other conduct deemed by the Day Student Council as opposed to the object, duties, and good name of the Organization.

6. Three-fourths of the membership of the Day Student Council and also the Day Student Body shall constitute a quorum, and no business may be transacted unless a quorum is present.

7. If at any time as many as fifty Day Students address to the Day Student Council a petition to which their names are attached, desiring an action, the Council shall present this petition to the President of the College with its own approval or disapproval attached. If the President approves, the Council shall submit this petition to a meeting of the Day Student Body.

8. All members of the Day Student Council shall take the following oath:

I do solemnly promise that I will faithfully execute the duties of my office and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and abide by the Constitution of the Day Student Organization of Queens-Chicora College.

The following shall be the Order of Business in the meetings of the Day Student Council:

Meeting called to order by the President.

To you who are new girls in our College, we extend a most sincere and hearty welcome. We want you to feel at home, in the church and in the S. C. A. It is one College organization to which every girl is eligible for membership.

We want 100 per cent active membership this year. Won't you help us to attain that end? You will find your place in the S. C. A. work as soon you become a member. There is enough pleasant and profitable work to keep every girl busy.

The S. C. A. is a local organization formed here three years ago to take the place of the Y. W. C. A. We believe that we could enter more wholeheartedly into the work of a Christian Association organized and carried on within our own College. We are now members of the State Student Christian Association, which is composed of the Associations of the four Presbyterian women's colleges of the State: Peace, Mitchell, Flora Macdonald, and Queens-Chicora.

The work of our local group is carried on by the students, assisted at times by outside speakers. There is work that each girl may do and we hope the students will take an active part in every phase of it.

As college girls we have come to realize that there is a place for us in the community and that there is a place for us to serve now as well as later. We co-operate with the local Orphanages and Charity Associations in finding opportunities to serve. Home and foreign missions is also a part of our work.

Each girl is urged to take an active part in the regular worship services; that is, Vesper service and good-night prayer meeting.

The center of the S. C. A. on Queens-Chicora campus is the Hut. We want you to share with us in making it have a cheery and home-like atmosphere.

THE STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND

The Student Volunteer Band, organized February 20, 1931, is a growing and active force on the campus. Its purpose is "to further the Kingdom of God on the campus now, and in the future, to hasten the coming of His Kingdom by guided effort in the chosen fields of America and the world." The Band welcomes all those who plan to dedicate their lives to Foreign or Home Service or to those who are deeply interested in this work.

Officers

President ..... Ione Smith
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Frances Ripplemeyer

THE CHRISTIAN SERVICE BAND

The Christian Service Band is an organization designed for those students who are especially interested in increasing their knowledge of the Bible and Missions. Any student of Queens-Chicora College is elegible for membership.

Vice-President ---------- Dorothy Hunter
Secretary and Treasurer ---------- Roberta Kilgore

MONTREAT AND DAVIDSON CONFERENCES

Something of which all new college students will hear much in the coming year is the Montreat and Davidson College Conferences, which are held annually. Here students from all over the State meet to discuss the various problems which they confront in their organization and to aid one another in the settlement of these problems. Here in the beautiful mountains they enjoy together the summer days, of happy companionship, bugle calls, work and play, long hikes and wholesome fun-making.

However, this is only the smallest part of these Conferences. Here one meets the leaders in Christian thought from all points of the State, and representatives from several of our Southern colleges, all of whom are striving to find the real things in life. One unites with them in earnest, open-minded study and simple, pure worship of the Father.

The joys and inspirations of such a conference forms one of the happiest memories of many an old Queens girl.

Any girl in school may attend these conferences. Plan now to be a Queens-Chicora representative next year. See the S. C. A. for further information.

MARY STEELE HUBBARD
President of Athletic Association

I. All students are required to support college activities by paying the amount of the budget to the Student Treasurer upon their arrival in September.

II. All students failing to pay this tax in full shall be excluded from the activities specified in the budget and from the privilege of voting in student elections.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association is an organization for every student in the college. Its purpose is to interest every girl in some form of athletic activity. Each girl paying her budget is entitled to the use of the gymnasium and the tennis courts.

The executive power is vested in the Executive Board, composed of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with the Physical Director as advisor.

President ---------- Mary Steele Hubbard
Vice-President ---------- Claudia McChesney
Secretary and Treasurer ---------- Ione Smith

Light Blue vs. Dark Blue

The Athletic Association is divided into two sides, the Light Blue and Dark Blue. The new girls are placed on one of these sides by the Athletic Council, early in the fall. They remain on this side all through college. This is to promote active interest and co-operation, each girl having a part to play. A Queens banner is awarded to the side making the highest number of points. When the banner has been won three consecutive years it becomes the permanent property of that side, after they have been divided. The captain of each side is elected after the division of girls into the two groups.

THE POINT SYSTEM OF ATHLETICS

Rules

1. Any half-hour of exercise is equivalent to one point.

1. Walking one-half hour—one point. (Walking around campus does not count.)

HONORS

Marshals

The Junior making the highest scholastic average for three years shall be chief marshal; the two Juniors making next highest, the two Sophomores who average highest for two years and the Freshman averaging highest for one year shall serve as commencement marshals.

They shall usher for class day exercises and for graduation exercises. They shall wear the colors of the graduating class.

Marshals will serve throughout the following year.

TRADITIONS

The Freshman and Junior classes are sister classes, while the Sophomores and Seniors stand united at all times in events demanding class spirit. Generally, some social courtesies are rendered to upper-class girls by lower-classmen.

Queens-Chicora College colors are light blue and dark blue, and our motto, "Non ministrari sed ministrare." The entering class always takes the colors, motto and flower of the class which was graduated the previous June.

On Class Day, during commencement week, the Juniors carry a daisy chain and receive the caps and gowns which are the exclusive property of the Senior Class. After receiving these the Junior Class enjoys its annual dinner in the city.

Everyone stands during the singing of "Alma Mater."

The Edelweiss is published by the Senior Class, while the Queens Blues is published by the Junior Class.

Seniors wear their caps and gowns and act as ushers on May Day.

Juniors serve at the Alumnae Banquet.

"O Mother Dear, Jerusalem," and "Ancient of Days," are always sung as the Processional and Recessional at the Baccalaureate Sermon.

The Seniors give the Sophomores a breakfast Class Day.

The Senior Class, upon leaving, always leaves some gift to the College.

The Sophomores decorate the stage for Class Day Exercises.

We urge every new girl to learn these songs and yells as soon as possible so she may be able to enter into the "Queens Spirit" as soon as she arrives on the campus.

Alma Mater

I.

Deep within the waving forest,
Far from bustling town,
Stands our noble Alma Mater;
Proudly looks she down.

Chorus:

Sing her praises, lift her chorus
Over hill and dale!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Queens-Chicora Hail!

II.

Deep among the fragrant pine trees
Is our college true,
There our noble Alma Mater
Proudly stands in view.

Our Mother and Our Queen

I.

Oh time of happiness and youth,
Of joyful consecration,
Of holy zeal for faith and truth,
And love-born inspiration
When earth is clad in vernal hue,
The skies in golden sheen—
We raise our hymn of joy to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

II.

You lead from life's uncertain dawn
To glorious day your daughters,
In golden pictures you have drawn
The floods of living waters.
And round thy banner, blue and blue,
A faithful host is seen,
True to their honor, true to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

III.

Though roseclad hope may open wide
The future's golden portal,
And love shall crown—a happy bride—
Our brows with wreaths immortal;
Though all our dreams are coming true,
Yet naught our hearts can wean,
Nor turn our grateful thoughts from you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

IV.

To grief and joy—as years go past—
Points fate's unerring finger;
But changeless shall, while life will last,
Your blessings with us linger,
Unfaltering love, like morning dew,
Shall keep your memory green—
Our lodestar bright, we gaze on you—
Our Mother and our Queen.

---

Q. C. we love you,
Oh! Q. C. so dear,
If you think we don't love you,
What a foolish idea.

Make way and hail, here comes the Q. C. girls,
Pouring their dauntless spirit forth in song,
Wake up girls and answer the call,
Queens girls will lead them all.

We've got the grit that's gonna pull us through,
And all the pep that we will show to you,
We'll go forth and face the world today,
Q. C., Q. C., Q. C.

Q. C., Q. C., you're a wonder,
And when you are old and grey
We will all say yes by thunder,
You were some school in our day.
Sis, Boom, Bah!
Queens, Chicora!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Dear Q. C.

Dear Q. C. we'll be loyal and true,
To the end we will fight just for you.
We'll play fair, we'll play square all the while,
And we'll take each defeat with a smile.
If we win you may count on the Blues
To be friendly with those who lose;
We will stand by our school to the end,
And we'll always be her truest, bluest friend.

COMMENCEMENT HYMNS

I.

O Mother dear, Jerusalem,
When shall my sorrows have an end?
When shall I come to thee?
The joys, when shall I see?

II.

O happy harbor of the saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

III.

Thy walls are made of precious stones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
Thy gates are of bright orient pearls,
Exceeding rich and rare.

IV.

Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine.

V.

Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green,
There grows such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.

VI.

Quiet through the streets, with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow;
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow.

VII.

There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring;
There evermore the angels sit,
And evermore do sing.

VIII.

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

---

I.

Ancient of Days, who sittest 'throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blessed the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

II.

O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

III.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Savior,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

IV.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

V.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always.
